Customers

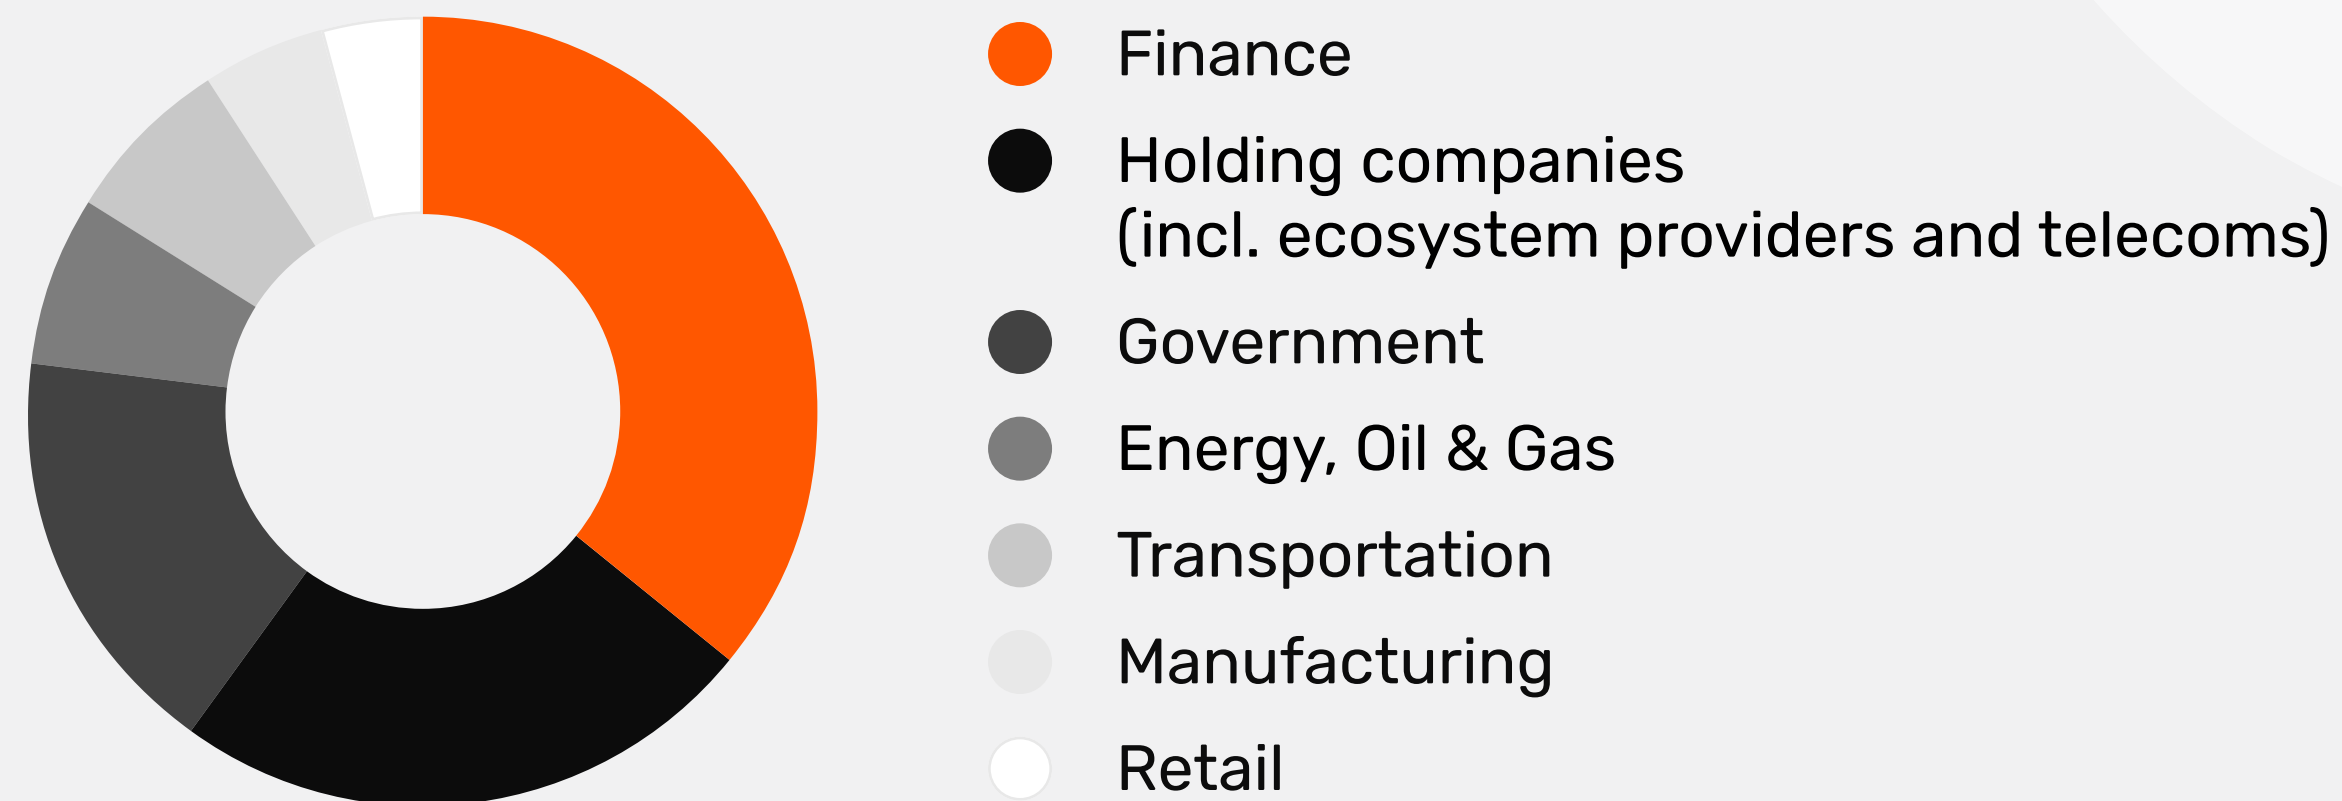

Customers

OCS principles for working with end-customers:

- All bids, including the prices and conditions to be reviewed by customer, are submitted only by vendors/distributors. Dealers are not allowed to submit bids for such deals
- If tender procedures are required to initiate a contract, the customer indicates the participant profile to be a "vendor" or "distributor" under the participant requirements section
- Customers initiate contracts by a public request for proposal announcement to the IT market/community
- Vendors authorize direct sales to a customer

Customer base (Based on dealer reports, customers come from the following industries)
